

Peter Ruhe

Peter Ruhe is no stranger to the Gandhi Peace Foundation. His first visit to India five years ago and his consequent introduction to Gandhi inspired him to start the Gandhi Information Centre in Berlin. He has visited India many times since, and was in India again, leading a group of young Germans on a tour in Gujarat "on the traces of M.K. Gandhi". At the end of the tour, Peter Ruhe visited Delhi and the Foundation and other Gandhian organisations to meet people, renew contacts and collect more material for his exhibition.
