

GandhiServe India

Activities Involved during the period of 2016-2017

The study of Gandhian thought is and will remain important for ages. However, it seems to be particularly important in the present-day world threatened as it is by nuclear war and total destruction. The understanding and application of the Gandhian technique of nonviolence for the many problems facing the world today will go a long way in leading it to peace.

Historical Research

The purpose of the Trust is the promotion of science, cultural and historical research, and education through Gandhian technique of nonviolence. The historical research is the ongoing activity of the trust for identifying and preserving the materials of Mahatma Gandhi and India's Independence movements and helping them to preserve

Execution and financial support of both academic and non-academic research projects that identify and conserve original documents on and by Mahatma Gandhi.

Children's Camp –Soft Skill development

This training is very basic and to build their self-confidence and motivate them to take up responsibilities team works group studies etc. So, it is an idea that if these students are given basic soft skills education and a formal grooming sessions then they can build themselves a better understanding capacity.

We conducted one day sports camp at Navsamaj Vidyamandir, Manivali coordinated by Amol Umbarkar on 28th Decemer 2016. To teach them the games and team works and at Dighashi School on 05th Jan 2017

On November 14th Children's Day celebration with anganwadi center at Base village Bhiwandi, along with cultural programme

MAHATMA Gandhi's Life in Colour – Book and Exhibitions

The book was brought on the way by Honorable Indian Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, at his residence on 2 October 2016 (Gandhi Jayanti). About the book he said: „Excellent collection – excellent publication“! He wrote in the first copy of the book in Gujarati: “By means of photographs you are bringing the life of Mahatma Gandhi to the masses for which you deserve congratulations!”

The public launch took place in the presence of Honorable Minister of State (Independent Charge) of Tourism and Culture, Dr. Mahesh Sharma, at the Constitution Club of India, New Delhi, on 5 October 2016

We organized a colour photographs exhibition on Mahatma Gandhi at New Delhi for the Sarvodaya conference

Educational Support Programme

The problem of the rural education is the children doesn't acquire the basic knowledge and skills for higher education .if the basics are correct the higher education will be easy for the students . India has got 18 crore children below the age of 15 .about 80 percent of these children doesn't reach 10th standard .and these pass out from the rural schools are not compatible to modern times . Among dropout more girls are there .the reason behind it is lack of lady teachers and toilets

The basic problem is children doesn't acquire literacy as such ,if literacy and numerical abilities are developed they will be able to go for higher education

Blind Walk On the World Sight Day

To encourage the eye donation campaign we planned in connection with the World Sight Day through a very innovative program called 'World Blind Walk' and end with a pledge to donate eyes and help the cause of the visually challenged people across the World.

The walk was led by blind people - They walk with their white cane in the front leading a group of five people who will hold on to the blind person in the front. Blindfolded persons literally will have to depend on them to walk. Around 200 students participated from Dharmaji Jadhve Kanya vidyalaya Vajreshwari, Bhiwandi

World Peace Bicycle Rally

In celebration with the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, we are supporting “World Friendship Bicycle Tour” by Shri. Dnyaneshwar Yewatkar. Through the bicycle tour we aim to spread the core messages of Mahatma Gandhi – nonviolence, truth, clean & peaceful society. Many great souls and lovers of peace have sacrificed their lives for establishing peace along with that they played important role to awaken the whole universe. This bicycle tour would be a tribute to all those great souls and a reminder for us of their message and sacrifice.

May Peace Prevail on Earth!
